

Kids Coaching Connection Skills Event

This Essential Kids Coaching Connection Skills Event offers all participants practical skills that can be used immediately and confidently.

Are you someone who works with young people and would like to improve your existing skill set in relation to:

- Helping kids and youth learn better
- Communicating with kids and youth more effectively
- Deepening your relationship with kids and youth

Would you like to have simple yet practical tools to use immediately to help young people to:

- Help kids and youth become more prepared for life
- Help kids and youth tap into their values and virtues
- Help kids and youth become more productive and fulfilled

Kids Coaching Connection is an internationally renowned and award winning program. This 3 hour Essential Kids Coaching Connection Skills event will cover:

- What Coaching is all about
- Listening Skills
- Powerful Questions
- Acknowledgements

Date	December 8th, 2011
Time	6:30pm until 9:30pm
Location	Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE) Auditorium, 252 Bloor Street West, University of Toronto, St. George Campus, Toronto, Ontario
Cost	$65.00 (tax uncluded)

The Leader of this workshop, Susan T Howson, is the foremost authority in the world on kids and youth coaching and is endorsed by schools, youth workers, parents, kids and youth. She was the finalist for Canadian Coach of the Year and the Kids Coaching Connection program won the internationally acclaimed PRISM Award through the International Coach Federation for the positive impact it has on kids and youth.

If you are passionate about making the world a better place for kids and youth, this is an absolute must attend event.

To order your tickets visit www.magnificentcreations.com or call 905-891-1934